 him about the city, up City Creek explaining to him the system on which irrigation was conducted in this section. Mr. Grosjean goes

CAMPAIGN WORK.

Meetings by the People's Party at Juab and Lovan.

NEPHI, U. T., Nov. 3.

Editor Herald:

I find it is good to belong to the "People's party" about now. Yesterday I accompanied a party consisting of four speakers for the People's party, the Nephi brass band and others interested in the welfare of our country, in all twenty-five persons, from Nephi to Juab and Levan. On arriving at Juab, our noted and esteemed citizen, Mr.
 Edward Taylor, with his usual affability, met the party at the depot with half a dozen or more of his best teams and sailed away with us up to Levan, which is about four miles distant from Juab, and where a host of good natured, big hearted people were in waiting, and invited each one of us to a dozen places for dinner. Not being able to decide as to whose hospitality each should make use of Mr. Eli Curtis, who had been appointed by our central committee, a committee of one, to superintend the days' programme at Levan, came to our relief and placed us in the hands of those who provided sumptuously for our welfare.

At 2 p. m. the lively music of our brass band reminded us that the good things upon the dinner table must be forsaken for a time—and that food must be spread upon the platform of the People's party.

We proceeded to the Levan Meeting House, where a larger gathering of people surrounded the music makers, who were distributing the spirit of the day in sweet harmonious sounds that fired the hearts of the hearers with love and gladness.

An immense meeting was held at which the platforms of the People's party and the "Liberal party" of Utah Territory were ably compared, the latter being buried, and the former being hoisted on the standard of our country, where the eagle will proudly soar with the renewal of the spirit of our noble ancestors.

The programme at Levan having been finished the party returned to Juab, where the generosity of the two hotel keepers, Mr. E. Taylor and Mr. J. C. Witbeck, was a happy surprise to all—their table being laden with the best that our land affords, fine roast turkey not being omitted in the bill of fare.

A successful and happy meeting was held at Juab in the evening, at which the topic of the day was duly exhibited to an attentive audience of citizens and transient people, at the Witbeck Hotel, which had been prepared for the purpose.

At each of the meetings above named the platform of the People's party was unanimously adopted and the nomination of Hon.
 John T. Caine, candidate for the People's party, ratified by a unanimous vote of the people.
 After the meeting at Juab a fine ball was given at the Witbeck Hotel, dancing, songs and readings being the order, and ending in a hearty hurrah for the People's party.

THE RALLY.

This evening the greatest event of the kind that has ever occurred in this city will transpire, the grand rally of the People's party at the Theatre in support of the principles of the People's party and for the ratification and the nomination of Hon. John T. Caine. There is no doubt in the world, if the evening is fine, that the Theatre will be altogether inadequate to accommodate the press of people who will be present and desire to hear the addresses and participate in the applause.
 Hence arrangements have been effected to have open addresses made outside the Theatre, and at other points if the exigencies shall demand it. Addresses inside the Theatre will be made by Hon. John T. Caine, Hon. S. R. Thurman, F. S.
 Richards, Esq., Judge W. N. Dusen-berry, and Professor J. B. Toronto.
 Those who will make addresses outside are: Professor T. B. Lewis, Dr. J. M. Benedict, G. M. Ottinger, Esq., C. W. Penrose, Esq., and some others.

The torchlight procession will march not a great distance, and four bands of music will discourse stirring strains and add to the life of the occasion. It is unnecessary to urge people to be present, for they cannot be kept away if it is possible for them to be in attendance.

Some Shooting.

About 7 o'clock last evening three shots were heard in rapid succesion, from or near Second South and First East streets. Officer Pratt was on the spot in a few seconds, but was unable to elicit any thing as to the name of the shooter or the cause that led to it. It was reported that a couple of roughs quarreled with a couple of Chinamen near the Elephant corner. The heathens walked east and roughs followed them, and when crossing First East, it is said the heathens turned and fired on the roughs, who fled back while the Chinamen ran the other way.

Another story is that two cow boys had supper in a Second South street restaurant, and one, getting through first, said his partner would pay. The other came up, and when asked for the money for two meals, said he paid only for himself; stopping outside and seeing his partner, it is said he started firing. Neither story is authenticated and no one was hurt.

Shooting at Blackfoot.

A man named Charles Howard, who was in Mester's saloon at Blackfoot, on Friday evening last, drinking some beer, started to leave the saloon, when he met Scott Donnelly and constable Jim Westfall just outside the door. Donnelly commenced abusing Howard, who warned him to stop, but he continued his abuse until Howard attempted to strike him, when Westfall took hold of Howard, and pushing back, both fell into the saloon door. Howard on top. Westfall drew his revolver while down and fired four shots, one shot passing through Howard in the region of the kidneys; the second shot cutting off one finger from Donnelly's right hand and badly cutting the rest of them; the third shot breaking Fred Griswold's leg; while the fourth shot lodged in the ceiling.
 Westfall was arrested and held until sheriff Homer, who was telegraphed for, arrived and took him into custody and off to Malad for trial.—Idaho Enterprise.

STABBING AFFRAY.

H. F. Hicks Frightfully Cut by Allen Boyne.

On Thursday evening, a frightful stabbing affray took place near Kayaville, and it is not at all unlikely that the affair will result fatally. About 5 o'clock in the evening Harry F. Hicks, who is in the employ of Christopher Layton, and Allen Boyne, who works for Joseph Aldridge, got into an altercation about something which is not yet known. The men, it appears, had quarreled on a previous occasion, when Hicks had proven himself to be the better man of the two.
 Boyne, perhaps determined upon a quarrel, had armed himself with a long knife, and as both became very angry, he drew it and flourished the knife at his opponent. He dared Hicks to attack him, at the same time advancing himself and threatening to cut Hicks open. The latter attempted to take the knife away from him, and while engaged in the scuffle Boyne stabbed Hicks, making a most wicked thrust. The knife cut through two woolen shirts, and entered the body about eight inches below the breast bone, and extended upwards some seven inches, to a point just above the pit of the stomach. So frightful and so wicked was the cut that it left the intestines visible for a distance of about four inches. The gaping wound required eight stitches to close it up, and Dr. Carrington, of Farmington, who was called in and who is attending the unfortunate man, did all that could be done.
 Hicks, at last reports, was in a very critical condition; he is about 24 years of age and bears a good reputation thereabouts.

As soon as Boyne had stabbed Hicks he turned and ran away and is still at large. What steps have been taken to secure his arrest, we do not know.

"New Magdalen"—"Romeo and Juliet."

Only a fair sized audience was present at the Walker Opera House last night, to witness the performance of the "New Magdalen," by the Nellie Boyd troupe. The several parts of it were well sustained, some of them admirably, this being the case, of course, with Miss Lloyd and with Mr. Emery.

This afternoon a matinee performance of "East Lynne" will be given by the troupe.
 To-night Shakespeare's love tragedy "Romeo and Juliet," will be presented. The play is a favorite with all classes, and it will be a matter of much interest to the public here, to see how the young local raised actor will deport himself in the fine Shakespearean character of "Romeo." This will conclude the engagement of the company here.

The Canvassing Party.

As announced Hon. John T. Caine and party went to Tooele on Friday morning, to hold a meeting there and another at Grantsville. The turnout at Tooele was exceedingly large and a brass band made the affair lively. Speeches were made by Hon. John T. Caine, Judge W.
 N. Dusenberry, Hon. S. R. Thurman, Hon. Jas. Sharp, and F. S.
 Richards, Esq. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed and the platform of the party was vociferously adopted and the nomination unanimously ratified. When the meeting at Tooele was ended, the party, accompanied by the brass band, drove over to Grantsville and a rally was held there last night, the same interest being manifested.
 At the conclusion of the meeting, the party was driven back to Tooele and reached this city about 1 o'clock this morning by special train over the Utah and Nevada Railway.
